

Ways & Means

There are cheeky ways to get ahead in this competition. If you have golden coins, that is.

The Council provides you with a few coins as the competition begins. Get your hands on more golden coins by eliminating your opponents' pieces, by making deals with your opponents, or, if you're lucky, by visiting the pub.

Want to sabotage for your opponents? Buy a Hole! Place it strategically on the board and no-one can cross that square. Just remember: NO-ONE can cross it, not even you. And the Hole is permanent.

Wouldn't it be nice to keep your Candidate completely safe for a while? Playing offense without risking your Silver key? Well, you can. A Haven tile will shelter your Candidate for three whole rounds.

Be cheeky. You're not in Evercent Springs yet, so you can absolutely make deals with your opponents. Bribe an opponent to not eliminate you; or pocket some nice golden coins by accepting one yourself.
